

RRIPANGU YIRDAKI

Hosted by Djalur Gurruwiwi and Family

Located : Guluru Outstation, Gove Peninsula , North-east Arnhem Land, Northern Territory.

*Djalur Gurruwiwi and family warmly invite you to a one week cultural immersion experience in Arnhem Land. This 7 day Masterclass is a rare opportunity for you to learn from the Grandmaster of yidaki, Mr Didgeridoo himself, as well as to experience Yolngu life from the inside.
As a guest of Djalur and his family, you will be staying in his community at Galuru, north-east Arnhem Land, an intimate outstation-type settlement situated on a lovely stretch of beach with postcard views of the blue waters of the Arafura Sea.*

Masterclass:

Yidaki is an important symbolic instrument in Yolngu culture and as its popularity increases around the world it is important to understand its heritage and cultural significance.

*This is an intensive week of learning... about Aboriginal culture, language, kinship, relationships to land, the environment, hunting... And of course, learning to play the yidaki from the very best teachers you could possibly have.
You will also have the opportunity to make your own yidaki under the guidance of Djalur, his son Larry Winiwini and other members of the Gurruwiwi family. Learn the secrets of Djalur's craft that has earned him the reputation as the world's foremost didgeridoo craftsman.*

Costs:

Half Day $150

Full Day $300 per day

7 day Masterclass $2000

(Inclusive of camping style accommodation in the Galuru community, 3 meals a day, make your own didgeridoo, plus daily cultural activities and more!)
